POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR CROSS-CAMPUS ENROLLMENT

1. The host institution whose course is being taken under the auspices of the Cross-Campus Enrollment Program will collect applicable per unit course fees for the specific course related to the program. Note: There will be no non-resident fee charged by the host campus for participants of the program.
2. The host institution whose course is being taken under the auspices of the Cross-Campus Enrollment Program will provide the home institution an 'official' academic transcript at the conclusion of the course, at no additional cost to the student.

Eligibility Requirements:

Undergraduate students enrolled at any campus of the California Community Colleges, the California State University, or the University of California may enroll without formal admission in a maximum of one course per academic term at a campus of either of the other systems if there is an agreement in place between the respective institutions. Enrollment is on a space available basis at the discretion of the appropriate campus authorities on both campuses. Enrollment in pre-collegiate courses is excluded.

3. A student is eligible to participate in the Cross-Campus Enrollment Program if they meet the following guidelines:
 - a. Have completed one semester as a matriculated student and has completed 12 units of degree applicable work at the home institution.
 - b. Is enrolled in 12 units at the home institution during same term as being a program participant.
 - c. Has earned a cumulative GPA of 2.0 for all work completed.
 - d. Has paid appropriate tuition and fees at the home institution for the term of participation.
 - e. Has not been academically disqualified from either institution.

Enrollment Conditions:

4. The enrollment conditions necessary to participate in the program are as follows:
 - a. Approval is valid for only the one term specified and subject to space availability, deadlines, registration procedures, and priorities of each respective institution.
 - b. The non-refundable administrative fee (the California Community College per unit charge) is assessed and payable upon program enrollment.
 - c. Additional fees (lab, materials, breakage, printing, etc) required of all other students will be required by the program participant.
 - d. Academic advising is only available at the program participants' home institution.
 - e. Program participants are urged to secure approval from home institution advising in regards to course applicability to degree requirements.
 - f. Program participants must meet the appropriate course prerequisites (the host institution will check).
 - g. The home institution will provide a copy of 'unofficial' transcripts with the application to the host institution.
 - h. Financial aid is available only through program participants' home institution (as program participants' are required to be enrolled in 12 or more units at the home institution, there is not a need for a financial aid consortium agreement).
 - i. Health services at the host institution for program participants' are limited to treatment for emergencies.
 - j. Students are only eligible for student services (i.e. career services, recreation center, housing, office of student disabilities, etc.) at their home institution.
 - k. Parking is available for a fee. Program participants' should inquire with the respective host institution.
 - l. Program participants' at UC Merced are required to purchase a CatCard at a cost of $20. The card is required to identify the affiliation with the UC Merced and also allows for library and printing services.
 - m. Students are subject to all administrative procedures of the respective host institution while they are visiting as a program participant, including the Student Conduct Code and requirements for course drops and changes, which may be accessed by inquiring at the administrative offices of either respective institution.

Special Note for Potential Transfer Students:

California Community College (CCC) students should be advised that in order to maintain your standing as a CCC student for UC Merced admissions purposes, you must have 30 out of your last 40 semester units at a CCC and you must be enrolled for at least two regular terms at a CCC immediately prior to enrolling at UC Merced. Please contact UC Merced Transfer Student Services at (209) 228-7178 with any questions regarding this policy.

MERCED COLLEGE to UC MERCED (MC2UCM) CROSS-CAMPUS ENROLLMENT

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is eligible to participate?

- UC Merced and Merced College students who:
 - have completed at least one term and at least 12 units of degree applicable work at their home institution with at least a 2.0 cumulative grade point average.
 - are enrolled in 12 units and have paid their tuition and fees at the home institution during the same term they want to cross-enroll.
 - who meet host institution prerequisites for the courses for which they want to cross-enroll.
 - have not been academically disqualified from the host or the home institution.
 - be a California resident for tuition purposes or be exempted from nonresident tuition to participate. Students paying non-resident fees are not eligible to participate in the UC Merced and Merced College Cross-Campus Enrollment Program.

How many courses may students take and are courses limited?

- Students may cross-enroll in one course per term.
- Course availability is subject to space availability, deadlines, registration procedures, and priorities of the home and host institutions.

How much does cross-enrollment cost?

- A non-refundable fee is assessed and payable when students submit applications to cross-enroll.
- Students must also pay any additional fees (lab, materials, breakage, printing, parking, identification cards, etc.).

Can students use their financial aid to pay for cross-enrollment?

- Financial aid is available from the home institution only.

Are there additional costs if students are nonresidents?

- Students paying non-resident fees are not eligible to participate in the program.

What host institution services do cross-enrolled students receive?

- Students are eligible for student services at their home institution (for example, academic advising, career services, recreation center, housing, etc.). Students will be able to access email and portal services at the host institution.
- Parking is available for a fee and is payable to the host institution.

How do students get transcripts after the course is completed, and will the credit transfer to the home institution?

- The host institution will send an official transcript to the home institution at the conclusion of the cross-enrolled course. There is no transcript cost to the student.
- To ensure the course will apply to degree requirements, students must secure approval from their home institution's academic advisors before cross-enrollment.

Where can students obtain an application, and how can they get started?

- Applications for Cross-Enrollment are available at the home institution's Registrar's office.
- Cross-campus enrollment policies and procedures are listed on the reverse side of the application form.

What are the five steps that students should follow?

1. Obtain the application form at your home Registrar's office.
2. Complete the form and meet with your academic advisor to obtain approval on the form.
3. Submit the form to the home Registrar's office for a representative there to certify and attach your unofficial transcript.
4. Obtain the instructor's approval on the form when the term/course begins.
5. Submit the form, unofficial transcript, and payment to your host Registrar's office, so a representative can check prerequisites and enter the registration.
